Celebrating Bonalu with Grace and Tradition!

We're so proud of our Epistemo young dancers who brought ancient stories to life through their Kuchipudi performance at Peddamma Temple for Bonalu!

Their performances honored the power and diversity of our goddess traditions. These aren't just cute kids in costume. They're carrying the essence of our goddesses - fierce protectors, nurturing mothers, embodiments of cosmic power. Through their dance, these children remind us: strength comes in all sizes.

From Mahakali's fierce energy to Gauri's gentle nurturing, each goddess form empowers us in unique ways. Through performances like these, we keep these timeless teachings alive for new generations.

So next time you're feeling powerless, remember: there's a little Kali in all of us, just waiting to dance.
